Raffle tickets are in, we are asking everyone to try to sell some.

The club ride on June 13th consisted of 19 machines, and 37 people. We received 4 new memberships. Blooms donated a bottle of booze, everyone present had a chance to win. Blooms also put together a wine basket to raffle off and donated the profit ($103.00) to the club. The next club ride will be Saturday July 11th.

The club weekend away to Harrison Hills is July 30th -August 7th. Please either email the club (osseoareadustyriders@gmail.com), contact Brad or message us on Facebook if you plan on attending and how many that way we can get the rooms booked.

Trail update: There is a beaver problem therefore causing the trail by Fairchild pond to remain closed. They do have the material and volunteers to fix where the truck went in and did damage. The village of Fairchild also passed to open Main street, Humbird street (to Barrel Inn). They are working with the county to have speed limits and signs for opening up county H to Pond road.

New this year the club is giving away a lifetime membership once a year. The board voted this year the lifetime membership is awarded to Dan and Joanne Forcier. They are founding members and have always strived to help the club in anyway that they can. Thankyou and congratulations!

Next months meeting will be upstairs at Burly N Bucks, July 21st at p.m.

Deb moved to adjourn the meeting. Second by Mike. Motion carried.
